The 'FLORA' took the 'CASTOR' and then recaptured the 'CRESCENT', who had been forced to haul down her colours. On the 19 June the three ship were making their way home when they encountered 'la GLOIRE' (36) and 'la FRIPONNE' (32). The 'CRESCENT' and the 'CASTOR' (both very knocked about and shorthanded) were taken. The 'CASTOR' was commanded by Lt. Peter Melvill of the 'FLORA'. |                        |                              |                        |                              |
